

ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

Effective as of 2 April 2025

In this Acceptable Use Policy, all the capitalized terms shall have the meaning defined in the General Terms of Service and/ or Contract, unless otherwise stated herein.

To ensure our Tools and Services remain efficient and run smoothly, we are asking all our Users to use them responsibly and to comply with the following rules of acceptable use (as applicable):

- Users shall not conduct web or data scraping on or related to the Tools, including without limitation collection of data through any software simulating human activities, any bot, or web crawler.
- Users are obliged not to automate access to the Tool or Service, including, without limitation, through the use of APIs, bots, scrapers, or other similar devices.
- Users shall not access the Tool or Service with the purpose to build a competitive product or service, a product using similar ideas, features, functions, or graphics, or copy any ideas, features, functions, or graphics. Additionally, competitors of Wemedoo are explicitly prohibited from accessing or using the Tool or Service, unless Wemedoo has provided prior written consent for such access and use.
- Information that Users provide to us/ in the Tool must be complete, accurate, and up-to-date. This pertains to all the information necessary for registration purposes, company information, and agreement-related information. Use of a false identity and fraudulent activity is strictly forbidden in the Tool.
- Each account may be used solely by the authorized User, and each User is obliged to prevent any third parties from using the account individually or simultaneously with them.
- Users are obliged to undertake all necessary measures to maintain the security of their account and credentials for logging in. Wemedoo shall not be held liable for any loss, damages, or expenses arising from a User's failure to comply with this obligation. Users shall be solely liable for any losses, damages, liabilities, and outlays incurred by Wemedoo or any third party which is the result of unauthorized use of the account. In case of the discovery of any unauthorized use of the account, Users should notify us without delay by sending an email to info@wemedoo.com.
- Users shall not be engaged in any activity violating the privacy of others, or any misuse or unlawful processing of personal data, nor will Users publicly display or use the Tool to share any inappropriate content or material. Users are obliged to refrain from violating any applicable law or regulations in connection with the Users' use of the Tool or Service.

- Users shall not misrepresent themselves or disguise the origin of any content (including by "spoofing", "phishing", manipulating headers or other identifiers, impersonating anyone else, or falsely implying any sponsorship or association with Wemedoo or any third party).
- Users shall not use the services to violate the privacy of others, including publishing or posting other people's private and confidential information without express permission or other applicable legal ground, or collecting or gathering other people's personal information (including account names or information) from our services.
- Users shall not use the services in furtherance of any illegal purpose, or in violation of any laws (including without limitation data, privacy, and export control laws).
- Users are not permitted to conduct any security, integrity, penetration, vulnerability, or similar testing on the Tools without Wemedoo's express prior written consent, nor to use any software tool designed to automatically emulate the actions of a human user (commonly referred to as robots) in conjunction with the Tools. Users are forbidden from attempting to access the data of any other Wemedoo User, whether for testing or any other purposes.
- Users shall not post, upload, share, submit, or otherwise provide content that:
  - Violates or infringes the intellectual property or other rights of Wemedoo or a third party, including any copyright, trademark, patent, trade secret, moral rights, privacy rights of publicity, or any other intellectual property right or proprietary or contractual right, or where we receive notice of alleged violation or infringement;
